One Passenger Train Dashes Into Another.

WRECK ON THE BIG FOUR ROAD.

Nine People Killed Outright and Many Injured in a Head End Collision Near Kankakee, Illinois—Some of the Injured in a Serious Condition and No Hope of Recovery.

KANKAKEE, Ill., Sept. 20.—One-fourth of a mile south of the little village of Manteno, eight miles north of this city, the second section of No. 45, which is the Big Four express leaving Chicago at 8:10 p. m., crashed into the rear end of the first section with awful results. Nine persons, it is known positively, are dead, with a probability of three more victims still buried under the wreckage. A score of others are more or less severely injured, a number of them it is thought fatally.

First section of Big Four train No. 45, drawn by Engine 985, Sam Phillips engineer, and Conductor Tyner pulled out of the Illinois Central passenger station at Twelfth street at 6:10 p. m., having a train consisting of mail, two baggage cars, smoker, two day coaches, two Pullman sleepers and a "deadhead" coach in the rear. This train was immediately followed by its second section drawn by Engine 980, Engineer Charley Ames, Conductor Tom Eden, and followed them closely all the way down to the scene of the catastrophe. The train register at Chicago bears a notice to all passenger trainmen that there is no water at Kankakee station, hence it became necessary for Engine 985 to stop at the watertank just south of Manteno to take a supply.

To this stop is attributed the calamity of the night. As the first section hauled up at the watertank Conductor Tyner immediately sent his rear brakeman with a red light to flag the second section, knowing that they were following him closely, but before the flagman had got back 100 yards the second section could be plainly heard rapidly approaching, though hidden behind a curve in the track where a signal could not be seen. An instant later they dashed rapidly into view and seeing the frantic signals of the flagman from the first section, Engineer Ames reversed his engine and applied the air brake.

Owing to the high speed at which the second section was running this did not seem materially to check their speed, and an instant later, with a fearful crash, Engine 980, with a force no power could resist, reduced the rear car to a shapeless mass of splintered timbers and twisted iron. The wreck of the rear car was thrown high in the air, falling back upon the engine. The terrible impact forced the forward sleeper into the rear end of the day coach just ahead. This coach was filled with sleeping passengers, and the scene which ensued was one of almost infinite horror.

The engine plowed its way literally through the bodies of sleeping men and women. Blood besmeared the iron and wood of the shattered cars and in the darkness the awful screams of the injured and dying mingled with the hiss of the steam from the torn and twisted boiler. The passengers in the rear train escaped with nothing more than a severe shaking up. Many of them dressed and hurried forward to assist in the work of rescuing the unfortunate who were still pinioned in the wreck.

Several physicians were on the cars and they passed among the wounded alleviating with the few resources at their command the suffering of the wounded. Sheets and tablecloths were torn into bandages and wounds skillfully dressed while brave and kindly women ministered to their wants with coffee hastily prepared and with cups of water.

The crash of the collision was plainly heard in Manteno and in a few minutes the residents of that village were upon the scene in force. Houses near the spot were hastily thrown open and each became an improvised hospital. Local surgeons from this city were hastily summoned and several of them, together with other residents of Kankakee hastened to Manteno. The arrivals were timely and their efforts much appreciated by the terror-stricken passengers, many of whom, otherwise uninjured, were suffering from the suddenness of the shock and going about wringing their hands and crying hysterically.

The cries and moans of those pinioned down by the broken timbers and twisted iron works of the shattered cars were pitiable, and the work of getting them out was attended with the utmost difficulty, so thoroughly had the engine done its work of destruction. As the labors of the relief party proceeded, dead and dying were found mingled with the sometimes unconscious bodies of those whose lives were providentially preserved.

The list of dead is as follows: Emil Kimmel, Dayton, O. J. W. Powell, New Vienna, O. L. L. Sweet, Louisville, Ky. David Jackson, Carmel, O. Minnie Delvers, Lower Albany, Ind. Miss O. Edwards, 42 Forty-third street, Chicago. Charles Deckendasher, 20 years old, Columbus, O. Jacob Simpson, blacksmith, Columbus, O.

Elderly man, unidentified. The following is the list of the injured: Albert Jay Sholter, Ripley, O., bad cut face and head, probably fatal. George Brackney, Wilmington, O., limbs crushed; probably fatal. O. B. Wisheart, Frankfort, O., internal injury.

WILLIAM EVANS, POWELLTON, W. VA., internal injury. Miss Sallie Evans, Powellton, W. Va., internal injury. Mrs. Chris Kimmel, Dayton, O., head and body injured. L. H. Blanton, Indianapolis; not serious. James W. Brown, Wilmington, O., internal and head. Mrs. James W. Brown, internal injury. Oliver Patton, Carmel, O., body bruised.

Emily Templeton, Sinking Springs, O., head and body. J. W. Means, Chester, S. C., slightly injured on back and head. Blanche Belleson, Sinking Springs, O., limbs badly bruised.

Anna Cowell, Lower Albany, Ind. George Brackney, formerly of Wilmington, O., dislocated shoulder, compound fracture of one leg and simple fracture of the other; will recover. Jesse Morse, Cincinnati, badly injured internally.

Emma Gallatin, Columbus, O., back and limbs bruised. Miss E. Gallatin, Columbus, O., limbs bruised.

Blain William, Indianapolis, internal injuries and cut around head and face. Miss Blanche Belleson, Sinking Springs, O., injury to face and head and possible fracture at base of skull.

J. W. Brann, dealer in buggies, Wilmington, O., slight injury of legs; not serious. Joseph Foster, Springfield, O., aged 60 years, skin bruised; not serious.

Mrs. Joseph Foster, wife of above, injury to hip in the shape of a serious strain. Miss Libbie Jackson, Cynthia, O., shoulder hurt, not serious. Her uncle was killed.

Mrs. Chris Kimmel, Dayton, O., injury to hips, not serious. Carey B. Wisheart, clerk, aged 22, Frankfort, O., bruised about the face, hands and head; not serious.

SWEEP BY FIRE.

An Entire Town in Ruins and Hundreds of People Homeless.

OWINGSVILLE, Ky., Sept. 20.—Many of the inhabitants of the prosperous town of Owingsville are homeless. A fire broke out in the livery stable of Peed & Hazelrigg, on Henry street.

The building with all its contents, 15 or 20 horses and a large lot of feed of all kinds, was soon consumed.

Next was the Owingsville Opinion office, an entire loss with no insurance. Then the saddle and harness shop of J. W. Hutchison, and the dental office of Dr. W. C. Nesbitt.

The wind was blowing a gale from the southwest and the fire next caught the blacksmith shop of W. W. Pierce, the coal yard of Peed & Hazelrigg, the lumber yard of H. C. Sherman & Company, then 10 or 12 houses on Water street occupied by negroes, including the Farrow hall.

The fire then leaped to the new $10,000 Christian church on Main street, then to L. R. Slesser's dry goods store, J. A. Ramsey's hardware place, Conner & Kimbrough's two vacant storerooms, J. T. Kimbrough's drug store, J. M. Richard's dry goods store, Goodpastor's bank building, R. S. Estill's drug store, and the grocery and saloon of Ed Bailey, the two latter belonging to Dr. C. W. Honaker.

These buildings are all west of the Christian church. The fire then going east, burned the dry goods store of I. Josselson, the millinery of Mrs. Lucy Hampton, the dry goods store of James Gellon and the furniture store of C. H. Hoon, and the end is not yet, as the fire is still raging, and there is no water and no organization to fight it with.

Hundreds of willing hands were compelled to stand idly by and see valuable property go up in smoke. It is impossible to state the loss on what has already burned, but it fully $150,000. There is some insurance, not enough to cover half the loss.

No one has any knowledge of how the fire originated. Those who are least able to bear the loss have no insurance. This is the third great fire that has visited Owingsville in recent years, but this is the most destructive of all.

THEATER BURNED.

Twenty Persons Badly Burned, Several of Whom Will Die.

CANTON, Ill., Sept. 20.—At 9:30 o'clock yesterday evening during the performance of Michael Strogoff by the Edwin Melville company in the new house fire from the fireworks. The fire scene ignited the entire house in a few minutes the entire audience was cautioned to stand and many remained standing. The delay nearly caused a holocaust. Twenty persons were burned, of whom three or four were fatally injured and five seriously. It is thought that every body got out of the house, but it is not known to be a fact. The loss is $6,000 to the house. The theatrical company lost everything in wardrobes and scenery and $2,000 in cash.

Burglars Caught Dead to Rights.

WALTON, Ky., Sept. 20.—Two colored men and a white man were caught entering the house of Green Fields. The white man acknowledged that he entered the house, and in proof a set ring and other articles were found on him. A razor, an heirloom of the family, was found on one of the others and a set of sleeve buttons. "Squire Curley held them over to the circuit court. The parties gave their names as Harry Beaumont, white, Harry Lee and Oscar Smith, colored.

AT 12 DEMISE.

PARIS, Sept. 20.—Senator Gunabara, Brazilian delegate, denies that President Peixoto has fled. The headquarters of the army are now at Santa Anna, close to the Itamarati palace.

A TERRIBLE CRIME.

An Entire Family Killed By Supposed Robbers.

BODIES HORRIBLY MANGLED.

An Indiana Farmer, His Wife, Mother and Two Children the Victims of an Assassin—The Awful Deed Done With a Hatchet—Bloodfound on the Track of the Murderers—It Is Believed Robbery Was the Motive.

WASHINGTON, Ind., Sept. 20.—A horrible murder was committed 10 miles southeast of this city. Denson Wratten, his wife, mother and two children were brutally murdered in cold blood by an unknown assassin.

Denson Wratten was a farmer in good circumstances, and with his wife, three children and his mother lived on a farm 10 miles southeast of this city.

Yesterday morning a neighbor, James E. Stone, called at the Wratten residence about 7 o'clock and found the door open at the rear of the house and the wife of Mr. Wratten lying dead in a pool of blood near the door.

On entering the house he found Mr. Wratten in bed dead, with a horrible gash in the forehead.

The children were all lying in a big bed in the same room. Great gashes were found in the forehead of two, and the back of the head of the other. Two were dead and one of the children, aged 12, is still living, but unconscious.

The mother of Mr. Wratten had been sleeping in an adjoining room. In this room was a spectacle that made the blood run cold. The old lady was found lying on the floor, her head hacked to pieces, and the right hand entirely severed from the arm, while the left arm was cut nearly off in two or three pieces.

It was the most horrible and revolting massacre imaginable. The instrument used must have been a hatchet, from the size of the wounds inflicted. Not the slightest clew can be obtained as to who the perpetrators of the terrible crime are.

A large posse of citizens was organized, and the country for miles around is being scoured.

Mr. Wratten's mother had drawn a pension for a number of years, and has recently drawn from the bank some money, and it is thought that the murderers were bent on robbery and were caught in the act.

Old Mrs. Wratten had evidently fought a terrible battle for her life and the wife was attempting to escape, as she was found near an open door in an adjoining room to the one where she slept. Bloodhounds were brought here from Seymour and put on the trail.

There is some hope of Ethel, aged 12 years, living, and if she survives she may be able to give some clew to the crime.

Mr. Wratten was in bed sick with a fever at the time of his death. The house wherein this tragedy was enacted is a story and a half log, with a frame L, and is about one-half mile from any other residence.

SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE.

The I. O. O. F. of the World in Session at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 20.—The first session of the sovereign grand lodge of the world of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was called to order by the grand sire, Dr. C. P. Campbell of London, Ont. The roll was called by Theodore Ross of Baltimore, the grand secretary, and representatives of every jurisdiction answered to their names.

The secretary's report showed a decided increase in the membership of the order since the last biennial convention.

After the formal proceedings, the sovereign grand lodge adjourned to take part in the parade, which moved over the principal streets at noon. This event was of significance to the order, from the fact that the lodges of the uniformed Patriarchal Circle acted as escort. The Patriarchal Circle was organized in this city by members of the order who afterward withdrew from the organization proper, as a result of dissensions regarding the establishment of a uniformed rank. The streets were crowded. There was a big display of decorations, and the parade was a pronounced success.

The next Sovereign grand lodge meeting will be held at Chattanooga in 1894.

DEATH OF SIR ALEX GALT.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 20.—Thomas Shay, a prominent farmer, aged 30 years, of Hutchison, eight miles from Lexington, was fatally shot by John Dilloway, a jealous youth of 15 years. Shay was out driving with a young woman to whom Dilloway was devoted. The boy followed, and climbing into the rear of the buggy he listened to the conversation of the couple until he became maddened with jealousy. When the buggy stopped he accosted Shay and shot him before the excited object of his affections. The ball entered Shay's groin, and he will die. Dilloway is under arrest.

Ex-President Polk's Remains.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 20.—With simple but solemn ceremonies the remains of J. Knox Polk, 10th president of the United States, and those of his wife, Mrs. Sach Childers Polk, were removed from the tomb at Polk Place, the old family residence in this city, to a picturesque spot in the state capital grounds and there reinterred. The services at Polk Place and Capitol Hill were very impressive, and the occasion was observed with due honor and respect by the state, the city, the church and the public.

FEDERAL ELECTION BILL.

Democrats Determined to Push the Repeal Measure Through Congress.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The caucus of Democratic members of the house was brief and to the point. Representative Holman presided and Representative Alderson acted as secretary. There was a full attendance of the Democrats who had been present during the proceedings in the house and the action taken, it was reported, had the hearty and unanimous concurrence of all who participated. Speaker Crisp offered the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this caucus that it is the duty of every Democratic member to attend the sessions of the house in order that the public business may be considered and disposed of.

He supported his motion in an earnest speech, pointing out the necessity that existed for Democratic representatives doing their full duty to their country and to their party, and honestly endeavoring to redeem the pledges made to the people who had entrusted them with the duty of legislating in their behalf.

Mr. Enloe of Tennessee moved to amend by adding "and vote" after the words "sessions of the house," which were accepted by the speaker.

Mr. Fithian of Illinois moved to add the following to the speaker's resolution, and the caucus agreed:

"And, that when the house meets it is the sense of this caucus that it remain in session continuously until a quorum is obtained voting in favor of the bills for the repeal of the federal election laws."

There was some discussion as to the expediency of pressing the consideration of the repeal bills, and the overwhelming sentiment of the caucus expressed was favorable to early action. The following resolution, offered by Mr. McMillin of Tennessee, on this point was adopted:

RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this caucus that the house should proceed at the earliest practicable day during this session to the consideration of the bill or bills repealing the laws authorizing deputy marshals and supervisors of elections at the polls.

After adopting the resolutions as a whole, the caucus adjourned, having been in session but little over an hour.

Subsequently, in pursuance to the last resolution, Speaker Crisp issued a call for a meeting of the committee on rules to take up the repeal bills and determining the length of time that shall be allowed for debate.

Speaking of the probabilities of the length of the continuous session agreed upon, Speaker Crisp said he did not look for anything extraordinary or uncomfortable. "After we get a quorum the Republicans can not detain the house any great length of time. They may keep us until 7 or 8 o'clock, but we'll drive the report through as soon as a quorum appears."

SENATE AND HOUSE.

But Little Done in Either Branch of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—For the third time since the repeal bill has been before the Senate, the senator in charge of it, Mr. Voorhees (Dem., Ind.) made an effort to have the opposition fix some time when debate ought to be closed and the vote taken; and for the third time the proposition met with unfavorable resistance. As on the first occasion, Mr. Dubois (Rep., Ida.) acted as spokesman for the opposition; but he was seconded and sustained by Mr. Teller (Rep., Col.) who stated that the knew of 15 senators who still desired to address the senate, and of whom 13 had not yet opened their mouths on the subject; and he added that until all senators who desired to speak had an opportunity of doing so, no vote be, or would be taken.

Mr. Voorhees, in view of the attitude of the opposition, gave notice that he would ask the senate to have not continuous, but lengthened sessions; and he was informed that his program would not be resisted, but that the friends of the bill as well as its enemies would be expected to be present. After a spirited speech by Mr. (Mills Dem., Tex.) in favor of the bill and by Mr. Stewart (Rep., Nev.) against it the senate at 5:15 adjourned.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Although Colonel Ike Hill, the Democratic whip, reported 185 Democratic representatives in the city at 10 o'clock, 17 more than a quorum in the house, there were but 173 of them present on the floor at any one time during the day and the majority again found themselves powerless to make any progress with the bill to repeal the federal election laws. Mr. Fitch returned from New York and relieved Mr. Tucker on the floor as the leader of the Democratic hosts. At 2:45 o'clock, after vainly endeavoring to secure a call of the committee and the introduction of the report on the repeal bill, Mr. Fitch moved an adjournment, which was agreed to without dissent.

Warrant For White Cappers.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Sept. 20.—Mrs. Andrew Schrader of Waymansville, this county, who some weeks ago was unmercifully whipped at the midnight hour by White Caps, has so far recovered as to be able to come to this city and swear out a warrant for the arrest of John Chafy, John Snyder, Ham Leasman and Henry Mondt, whom she claims to have recognized among the number who whipped her.

Death of Sir Alex Galt.

MONTREAL, Sept. 20.—Sir Alexander Galt, retired statesman, died at 8:30 Tuesday morning. Sir Alexander held different cabinet portfolios before and after the confederation, and was Canada's high commissioner in England for a period.

THE CROP BULLETIN.

Reports Made to the Weather Bureau at Washington.

RAIN VERY BADLY NEEDED.

Extensive Areas Over Which There Has Been No Rainfall During the Past Week—The Rain of Two Weeks Ago Has Had a Beneficial Effect—The Reports From Each Different State.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The weekly crop report of the weather bureau contains the following: Except in the northwestern border of the states, but little rain fell during the week to the west of the Mississippi, and as during the previous week there are extensive areas over which there has been no rain whatever.

In the Ohio valley and Atlantic coast states rains of the preceding week have greatly improved pastures, and have put the ground in good condition for fall plowing, which is progressing rapidly in the states named, fall seeding being about completed in New Jersey and New York. In northern Wisconsin, Missouri, Arkansas and Nebraska but little fall plowing has yet been done owing to the dry and baked condition of the ground, and seeding is delayed in consequence.

Maryland—House tobacco slightly injured by warm weather early in week; pastures and vegetables greatly improved; corn cutting has progressed rapidly.

Virginia—Tobacco and fodder was damaged by continued heavy rains; pastures improved.

North Carolina—Heavy rains injured crops and prevented farmwork; tobacco taking second growth; weather since Thursday good; a week of sunshine will greatly improve outlook.

South Carolina—No improvement in crops; cotton is rotting, bolls opening prematurely, packing progressing slowly; corn, on lowlands damaged by freshets, and in uplands by continued rains; turnips dying; pea vines, hay and rice poor; rice is sprouting in the stock; potatoes beginning to rot.

Florida—Warmer sunny days, following the heavy rains, benefited crops generally, and especially cotton.

Alabama—Rains first part of the week very injurious; cotton beaming out, causing sprouting in the bales, this continues favorable for all other crops and gardens.

Mississippi—Warm days and cool nights, favorable to cotton, but does not effect last week's rain and continued ravages of worms; picking interrupted, corn mostly gathered; ordinary crops, turnips, peas and potatoes good; pastures improved.

Louisiana—Hot, dry, sunshiny week favorable to cane, which has improved, showing but little damage of late storm; rice harvesting continues; corn and cotton being gathered rapidly; cotton will be short, and picking generally completed by Nov. 1. Drouth continues in northwest, where all crops, conditions and pasturage are unfavorable.

Texas—Drouth severe, except over the east coast; cotton is opening and being rapidly picked, that planted late is opening prematurely; no chance for top crop in many parts of state, as the plant is dying; the yield is as weak as generally reported and is about one-third of a bale.

Arkansas—Exceedingly hot weather has interfered with cotton picking, and together with the drouth has prevented fall plowing and been injurious to all growing crops except cotton, which is too far advanced to be benefited by rain; cotton opening rapidly and picking becoming general; crop will be much short of an average.

Tennessee—Tobacco good in northeast; in middle and north it is making new growth; crop will be good if not injured by early frost; rains damaged some cotton; Irish potatoes, turnips and pastures improving.

Kentucky—Badly distributed rains first part of the week of great benefit to late tobacco, pastures and gardens; cutting of corn and fall plowing progressing.

Missouri—Little plowing or seeding done yet; corn practically safe from frost, but maturing too rapidly.

Illinois—Rainfall badly distributed; frost in Jo Davies and Dupage counties on the 18th inst.; corn generally safe from frost and is maturing rapidly, much being cut; plowing and seeding progressing in the southern portion, elsewhere retarded; rain badly needed.

Indiana—Excessive rains and high temperature caused pasturage to recover and put the fields in good condition for plowing and wheat seeding, which is progressing rapidly; much corn is in shock; the rest nearly safe from heavy frost.

West Virginia—Weather beneficial to pastures, meadows and sown wheat; corn doing much better; tobacco growing nicely, some cut; cattle improving; sheep in excellent condition.

Ohio—Rains started vegetation and advanced fall plowing; seeding over in many counties and others still retarded by drouth; corn cutting well advanced; buckwheat, turnips and millet improved; early sown wheat coming up.

Oil House Burned.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Sept. 20.—The oil house of the Consolidated Tank Line company of Cincinnati caught fire here and was soon surrounded with flames that could not be controlled. Three terrific explosions occurred before the fire department could reach the scene. All that could be done was to prevent the flames from spreading. The fire was so great that it spread to the Big Four track, but the department saved the company's property and prevented the explosion of the company's large oil tanks some distance away. Loss estimated at $6,000.

WEATHER FORECAST.
 Fair weather; slightly cooler.

THE more the country sees of Grover Cleveland the plainer his resemblance to Andrew Jackson becomes.

MAJOR G. MAT ADAMS, of Barbourville, Governor Buckner's Secretary of State, and twice a member of Congress, is an applicant for the appointment as Pension Agent for Kentucky, to succeed Dr. Walton.

MR. NEAL, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, the putative father of the Confederate tariff plank in the Chicago platform, is showing the courage of his convictions and is making the square issue of free trade against protection with Governor McKinley.

ABOUT $9,000,000 in gold was landed in New York on Saturday by the steamers Fuerst, Bismarck and Britannic. Over 50,000,000 bushels of wheat have been shipped abroad during the last ten weeks. Its value is $30,000,000, and Saturday's receipts were a part payment for it. The coming cotton shipments will distribute some of the gold through the South, and thereby place it in line with the West and Northwest.

SENATOR LINDSAY'S SPEECH.
 The Washington correspondent of the Atlanta Journal sends the following special to that paper: "A big smooth-faced, boyish looking man with white hair tousled over his forehead, is making a great speech in the Senate to-day. It is a thing that is unprecedented and does not conform with the traditions of the dignified chamber. The Senator who is doing all this is Mr. Lindsay, of Kentucky, a new member of the body. He has a voice like a deep-chested church organ, and is denouncing the Sherman act as the work of the gold bugs and Wall street thieves, and declaring three years ago it demoralized silver. He literally riddled Vance and Pugh for their late speeches and has set Morgan, Vest, Cockrell, Coke, Call and Jones to reading the records, denouncing the measure they are now supporting. To say that Mr. Lindsay's speech is creating a sensation is putting it mildly. His defense of Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Carlisle is strong and manly, and puts the onus of non-legislation plainly upon those who have put their own interpretation upon the President's words, not based upon anything Mr. Cleveland has said or forborne to say."

Mr. Houston is now ready to serve his customers in his new storeroom just opposite the post-office.

Three new additions to bachelor's hall this week—Prof. Buffington, Walter Worthington and Frank Boyd, Sr.

Quite an attractive wedding ceremony took place at Hebron Thursday evening at 2 p. m. Mr. Thomas Worthington, of this place, was the bridegroom and Miss Daisy Best, of Hebron, was the happy couple spent the dawning of their "conubial bliss" amongst the sights of the Queen City, returning Sunday.

Although our little village is somewhat isolated, with no connection with the outside world by either rail or navigation, yet we have within our midst a few "excellencies" whose note should not be confined within our own limits. Firstly, if you wish to hear one of the finest whistlers of the age call on Uncle Dave Manning. He will produce for you strains that will rival the modern callopie. Secondly, if you want teeth extracted call on Dr. Walton, best in the State. Thirdly, if the ladies wish to see the most handsome mustache in three counties they can find it at home. Fourthly, we have also a rising poet who will one day sing us the sweet lyrics, equal to the Irish melodies of Moore; will lash our enemies with the keenest satires greater than the "Duncard" of Pope; will recount the adventures of our heroes with epics far superior to "Paradise Lost." Fifthly, ladies, there is at your service a gallant young man with a dashing horse and fine new buggy. All you have to do is to smile at him occasionally, or "wink the other eye," and like the knights of old he is at your command. Let us see that there is no "smothered genius" in this ambitious train.

THE GREAT GERMANTOWN FAIR

Will open its gates to the world

Wednesday, Thursday,

Friday and Saturday,

OCTOBER 11 to 14. It would be superfluous to make any lengthy notices of this famous institution. Its name and fame have gone abroad in the land, and the simplest announcement of its dates is sufficient to guarantee large crowds of people and the finest exhibitions of stock.

Prof. Louis Bush, the daring aeronaut, will give exhibitions of balloon ascensions and parachute drops Friday and Saturday, October 13 and 14, in full view of the assembled multitudes. Come to the fair with your sweethearts, your families and friends.

J. A. WALTON, Secretary.

L. H. MANNEN, President.

GETTING THE MONEY BACK.

The Michigan Train Robbers Did Not Profit Much by Their Scheme.

HANCOCK, Mich., Sept. 20.—All but $400 of the $70,000 stolen from the Mineral Range railroad on Friday last has been recovered at Marquette. Liberte had taken it out of the trunk and disposed of it as he thought to his satisfaction. The money went through both Hancock and Houghton behind the pacer Champ L. that King was driving and was left at Cobellie's saloon in East Houghton where Liberte boarded.

The trunk that the money was put in belonged to Mrs. Jack Chillew, but as she was in custody it could not be shipped in her name, and it was consigned to Martin Cannon at Marquette. Liberte left on the same train with the trunk. He opened it at Marquette and carried the money to Shea's saloon, where a goodly portion was discovered. There are under arrest now several persons at Marquette besides Liberte, and seven here and three more arrests are expected to follow.

It is impossible to interview the prisoners because the officials do not wish the public to know the state of affairs. It is now claimed that the robbery was planned at Frankie McDonald's disreputable dive at Houghton and that Butler was the originator and engineer of the hold-up. It is said that Butler is wanted at Memphis. All of the prisoners with exception of Butler show signs of weakening. The examination of the prisoners was postponed until Friday.

MADE HAPPY.
